

*A*nnouncing the debut of a new television series,
Passport & Palette

Shot in high definition for PBS, the programs in the series invite viewers to see the world through the eyes of master artists James Asher, Joe Anna Arnett, Kevin Macpherson and Kenn Backhaus. This 13 part series is unlike other "how-to" painting programs. The episodes present viewers with timeless principles of art using beautiful subjects and destinations to illustrate ideas. From Guatemala to Switzerland as well as locations in the US, you will be entertained as you learn valuable lessons in art. Check your local PBS station for schedule listings.
